

Fact Sheet

Organization	African Conservancy
Type	501 (c) (3) nonprofit organization
Mission	To preserve the last remaining African wilderness for the benefit of current and future local, regional and global stakeholders
Founded	2000
Headquarters	Vista, CA, USA and Lusaka, Zambia
Leadership	Corinne Waldenmayer, President and Co-founder Norbert Waldenmayer, Co-founder
Programs	Wildlife, environmental, and cultural education Provided to school age children in Africa and to Conservancy members through educational travel and volunteering opportunities, as well as the Conservancy's web site and quarterly newsletter. Cultural preservation and empowerment Undertaken by documenting hereto oral traditions, supporting African museum curatorial efforts; sponsoring African artists and craftsmen; and providing an outlet for African arts and crafts through the Conservancy's online marketplace and art gallery. Wildlife protection and rehabilitation Implemented through the preservation of national parks, and the funding and/or implementation of conservation and socio-economic development projects in partnership with local, regional and global stakeholders.
Membership	200 members, increasing at a rate of 25 percent each month. Member benefits include educational opportunities, a travel safari program and art acquisition services.
Location	2590 San Clemente Avenue Vista, CA 92084 Phone (760) 945-7571 Fax (760) 945-0879 Web www.africanconservancy.org
Press Contact	Sarah Znerold Phone (619) 886-4276 Email sarahznerold@earthlink.net